Home With A View!

This delightful three-bedroom semi-detached bungalow nestled in the picturesque village of Moneyreagh offers a comfortable and inviting living space, ideal for families or those seeking a relaxing experience. Boasting a range of modern amenities and scenic views of the countryside, this property combines practicality with a homely ambiance.

The property comprises a welcoming entrance hall with built-in storage, a bright and spacious family lounge area complete with feature wood-burning stove, modern kitchen with built in appliances and Belfast style sink leading to a living dining area where you can relax and enjoy a meal with family and friends whilst taking in views of the countryside. There are also three good sized bedrooms and modern family bathroom with walk in shower.

To the outside of the property, the front garden is laid in lawn with a tarmaced driveway to the side leading to a semi-detached garage. To the rear you have a large patio area with steps down to a garden with laid in lawn bordered with mature shrubs.

Church Road is located close to local amenities including Moneyreagh Primary School and the ever popular Auld House country bar and restaurant. Moneyreagh is within easy commuting distance to Belfast, Comber, Newtownards and surrounding areas.
